Select Articles on "Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026" Press release

As of 22 October 2026

NEWS.am

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

ZARTONK

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

Asbarez

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19

Առավոտ

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

The California COURIER

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

aterra.am

Armenian 0.7 percent U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

NOYAN TAPAN

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

1in.am

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

PanARMENIAN.Net

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal

ARMINFO Information Company

Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

Table of Contents

1. Armenian News AM: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 3
2. Zartonk: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 4
3. Asbarez: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19 5
4. Aravot: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 6
5. The California Courier: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 7
6. Tert Am: Armenian 0.7 percent U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 8
7. Noyan Tapan: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 9
8. A1plus.am: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 10
9. PanArmenian.Net: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal 11
10. Arminfo: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026 12

1. Armenian News AM: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

1. Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

2. Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

3. Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit.

https://news.am/en/news/1069073

2. Zartonk: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

ZARTONK

References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit:
www.khachkarstudios.com

Khachkar Studios
Charles & Agnes Kazarian Foundation
goodnews@khachkarstudios.com

https://zartonkmedia.com/2026/10/20/armenian-0-7-u-s-church-attendance-in-new-york-times-and-wall-street-journal-on-october-19-2026/

3. Asbarez: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19

Asbarez

WASHINGTON — References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?
For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework." Visit their website for more information about Khachkar Studios.

https://asbarez.com/armenian-0-7-u-s-church-attendance-in-new-yorktimes-and-wall-street-journal-on-october-19/

4. Aravot: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, October 19, 2026: References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

1. Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

2. Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

3. Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework."

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit:
www.khachkarstudios.com

Khachkar Studios Charles & Agnes Kazarian Foundation
goodnews@khachkarstudios.com

https://en.aravot.am/2026/10/20/381013/

5. The California Courier: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

News Provided By
Charles & Agnes Kazarian Foundation
October 19, 2026, 18:45 GMT
Share This Article
WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, October 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ — References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance. The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.
As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

1. Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

2. Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

3. Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit:
www.khachkarstudios.com
Khachkar Studios

Charles & Agnes Kazarian Foundation
goodnews@khachkarstudios.com

https://www.thecaliforniacourier.com/armenian-0-7-u-s-church-attendance-in-new-york-times-and-wall-street-journal-on-october-19-2026/

6. Tert Am: Armenian 0.7 percent U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

1. Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

2. Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

3. Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit:
www.khachkarstudios.com

Khachkar Studios
Charles & Agnes Kazarian Foundation
goodnews@khachkarstudios.com

https://tert.am/en/news/2026/10/21/khachkar-studios/4287606

7. Noyan Tapan: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, October 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

1. Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

2. Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

3. Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit:
www.khachkarstudios.com

Khachkar Studios
Charles & Agnes Kazarian Foundation
goodnews@khachkarstudios.com

https://nt.am/en/news/362183/

8. A1plus.am: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

1. Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

2. Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

3. Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit.

https://a1plus.am/en/article/508851

9. PanArmenian.Net: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal

References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations. The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?
For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement, which is available here.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit the website.

https://www.pan.am/en/626586

10. Arminfo: Armenian 0.7% U.S. Church Attendance in New York Times and Wall Street Journal on October 19, 2026

ArmInfo.References to the status of Armenian American church attendance are highlighted in the two full-page open letters in The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal discussing Pope Leo XIV new world-class benchmark statute on religious institutional good governance.

Pope Leo XIV's new financial statute sets a world-class benchmark for religious stewards globally to measure and manage their organizations.

The statute requires the Vatican's supervisory authority to operate with transparency, integrity, accountability, and effectiveness through good governance.

The open letter authored by Khachkar Studios and affiliates primarily focuses on Pope Leo's new statute on transparency, accountability, and performance, but contains one paragraph on Armenians.

The paragraph references Armenian Christians, asking three questions and challenging Armenian Christians to join the movement to revitalize Armenian church attendance.

As stewards with deep roots in Armenian Christianity, Khachkar Studios proffers three questions to all Armenian religious stewards:

1. Are you aware that 993 per 1,000 Armenian American young women have been so alienated that they do not attend Sunday church?

2. Do you care that their Sunday attendance is not the systemic misconception of being highest among Christian groups at 300 per 1,000 – but in reality, becoming nothing more than a romantic historic relic?

3. Will you dare to act now to transform your organization into a world-class benchmark of weekly transparency, accountability, and performance (T•A•P) measurement and management?

For an example of world-class benchmarking in action, see Khachkar Studios' Masterclass #3, Revitalizing Churches Worldwide – Case Study: Armenian Churches Joining the Movement at www.khachkarstudios.com/masterclass3/.

Pope Leo XIV has provided religious stewards with something enormously valuable: a new world-class benchmark for good governance. For those who have championed these principles for decades, its arrival feels like something more. Perhaps even a small miracle from heaven.

About: Khachkar Studios' mission is empowering Judeo-Christian Faithful through a good news Biblically inspired world-class benchmarking and management excellence "Framework"

For more information about Khachkar Studios, visit: www.khachkarstudios.com

Khachkar Studios Charles & Agnes Kazarian Foundation goodnews@khachkarstudios.com

https://arminfo.info/full_news.php?id=105102&lang=3