Notes:

- Mardigian Foundation has reported donations to ACAE of $100,000 in 2023, and $1,000,000 in 2022 in the Forms 990, but these donations are not listed in ACAE reports. As disclosed on the ACAE annual reports, Mardigian Foundation donations may also include contributions to other church-related international Armenian organizations, such as the Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin, the Armenian Patriarchate of Jerusalem, the Armenian Patriarchate of Constantinople, and others.
- Form 990 for Dadourian Foundation (whose official name is United Armenian Charities) for 2024 is not available, hence considered the average of prior available years with U.S. 990 tax form information.
- Form 990 for SJS Charitable Trust for 2024 is not available, hence considered the average of prior available years with U.S. 990 tax form information.
- Forms 990 for James H. & Marta T. Batmasian Family Foundation Inc. for 2024, 2023 and 2021 are not available, hence the numbers are from the ACAE and FAR annual reports, where they are listed as a $100,000 and up donor. Although the ACAE and FAR 2022 annual reports list the foundation as a $100,000 and up donor, the 2022 Form 990 shows no corresponding disclosure, so the contribution is recorded as $0.
- Form 990 for Armenian General Benevolent Union (AGBU) for 2024 is not available, hence considered the average of prior available years with U.S. 990 tax form information. AGBU has reported donations to ACAE of $505,115 in 2023, and $256,169 in 2021, but these donations are not listed in ACAE reports.
- Nazarian Family Foundation, Inc. has reported donations of $25,000 to ACAE in 2024, 2022, and 2021, and $20,000 in 2020, but the donations are listed as $100,000 and up in ACAE reports.
- Forms 990 are not available for Harry & Edna Keleshian Family Foundation. Amounts for Harry & Edna Keleshian Family Foundation also include individual donations from Edna Keleshian as reported on the ACAE and FAR annual reports.
- Form 990 for John Kazanjian Family Foundation for 2024 is not available. 2024 donation to FAR is from the FAR annual report.
- Form 990 for Asbed B. Zakarian & Margaret M. Zakarian Foundation for 2024 is not available.
- Forms 990 are not available for Kevork & Sirvart Karamanuk Foundation. Amounts are from the ACAE and FAR annual reports.
- Annual Report of FAR for 2020 is not accessible on the website.
- When Forms 990 are unavailable, the amounts reported are from the ACAE and FAR annual reports. All amounts disclosed in the annual reports in ranges are assumed to be the midpoint of the respective amount range, and amounts listed as $100,000 and up are recorded as $100,000, with the understanding that this approach may significantly understate the actual contribution.

Notes:

- Mardigian Foundation has reported donations to ACAE of $100,000 in 2023, and $1,000,000 in 2022 in the Forms 990, but these donations are not listed in ACAE reports. As disclosed on the ACAE annual reports, Mardigian Foundation donations may also include contributions to other church-related international Armenian organizations, such as the Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin, the Armenian Patriarchate of Jerusalem, the Armenian Patriarchate of Constantinople, and others.
- Form 990 for Dadourian Foundation (whose official name is United Armenian Charities) for 2024 is not available, hence considered the average of prior available years with U.S. 990 tax form information.
- Form 990 for SJS Charitable Trust for 2024 is not available, hence considered the average of prior available years with U.S. 990 tax form information.
- Forms 990 for James H. & Marta T. Batmasian Family Foundation Inc. for 2024, 2023 and 2021 are not available, hence the numbers are from the ACAE and FAR annual reports, where they are listed as a $100,000 and up donor. Although the ACAE and FAR 2022 annual reports list the foundation as a $100,000 and up donor, the 2022 Form 990 shows no corresponding disclosure, so the contribution is recorded as $0.
- Form 990 for Armenian General Benevolent Union (AGBU) for 2024 is not available, hence considered the average of prior available years with U.S. 990 tax form information. AGBU has reported donations to ACAE of $505,115 in 2023, and $256,169 in 2021, but these donations are not listed in ACAE reports.
- Nazarian Family Foundation, Inc. has reported donations of $25,000 to ACAE in 2024, 2022, and 2021, and $20,000 in 2020, but the donations are listed as $100,000 and up in ACAE reports.
- Forms 990 are not available for Harry & Edna Keleshian Family Foundation. Amounts for Harry & Edna Keleshian Family Foundation also include individual donations from Edna Keleshian as reported on the ACAE and FAR annual reports.
- Form 990 for John Kazanjian Family Foundation for 2024 is not available. 2024 donation to FAR is from the FAR annual report.
- Form 990 for Asbed B. Zakarian & Margaret M. Zakarian Foundation for 2024 is not available.
- Forms 990 are not available for Kevork & Sirvart Karamanuk Foundation. Amounts are from the ACAE and FAR annual reports.
- Annual Report of FAR for 2020 is not accessible on the website.
- When Forms 990 are unavailable, the amounts reported are from the ACAE and FAR annual reports. All amounts disclosed in the annual reports in ranges are assumed to be the midpoint of the respective amount range, and amounts listed as $100,000 and up are recorded as $100,000, with the understanding that this approach may significantly understate the actual contribution.
