2022 ANNUAL REPORT / DIOCESE OF THE ARMENIAN CHURCH OF AMERICA (EASTERN)

a message of GRATITUDE to our generous SUPPORTERS

ԱՐԱՋՆՈՐԴՈՒԹԻՒՆ ՀԱՅՈՑ
ԱՄԵՐԻԿԱՅԻ ԱՐԵՎԵԼԵԱՆ ԹԵՄԻ
DIOCESE OF THE ARMENIAN
CHURCH OF AMERICA
(EASTERN)

The Lord has done great things for us —and we are filled with joy.

It was 125 years ago that the Armenian Church established its “Diocese of America.” The great Khrimian Hayrig, Catholicos of All Armenians, proclaimed the creation of the Diocese in an encyclical, building a new community of faith, in a distant land. In the century and a quarter that followed, new Armenian churches were built from Massachusetts to Texas, from Michigan to Washington, D.C., from New Jersey to Rhode Island. This year we will celebrate this anniversary milestone in New York City and across all our parishes.

Growing In Faith Together

In May 2022, by God's grace, I was elected as Primate for our historic Diocese. I am grateful for having had the opportunity to serve this Diocese as a pastor, Cathedral Vicar, and Diocesan Director of Ministries—roles that afforded me the opportunity to meet many of you, and to experience the life of the Church across our Diocese. Since coming to the United States, I have experienced firsthand the vibrant faith in our parishes, and witnessed the good work being done by our priests and generous parishioners.

I have listened to people's hopes and dreams, their struggles and fears, and most especially their expressions of faith in Jesus, and love for the Armenian Church. Bringing all of this into my own heart, I have prayed daily for the guidance necessary to shepherd the Church, by the grace of the Holy Spirit.

Earlier this year, I was pleased to present a Pastoral Plan for our Diocese, titled "Growing In Faith Together." The plan has been reviewed and approved by the Diocesan Assembly, and it will be the road map for how we can live out God's call to us over the next several years.

I identified five priorities for our Diocesan life, which I believe should be the focus of our attention if we are truly to grow in faith together as disciples of Jesus Christ, moving forward by the grace of the Holy Spirit to build on a rich, centuries-long Christian tradition. The five priorities are:

- I. Celebrating our faith together
- II. Knowing our faith together
- III. Spreading our faith together
- IV. Living our faith together
- V. Sustaining our faith together

This plan is a dynamic one, which will give us a clear direction and purpose, yet still be open to evolving. I believe in my heart that God longs to see His children drawn closer to the Church, so that together we can proclaim to the world God's love as revealed in Jesus Christ.

I am also excited to announce that this year we will launch the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the establishment of our Diocese. I hope this anniversary milestone will further invigorate spiritual and cultural life across our Diocese.

None of this work would be possible without the kindness and generosity from people like you. Your heartfelt support of the Armenian Church and our Diocesan programs makes our ministries flourish. Like many institutions, our church has experienced hardship in the aftermath of the Covid-19 pandemic, and we are especially grateful for your continued commitment to upholding our mission.

Indeed, "the Lord has done great things for us," and together we can continue to do great things in His name. May our efforts in this hopeful calling bring God's blessings on all the faithful of the Eastern Diocese.

With my prayers,
VERY REV. FATHER MERSROP PARSAMYAN
Primate

A NEW PRIMATE

you make our programs possible

Thanks to your support, the Eastern Diocese can uphold its remarkable legacy, and fulfill the hopes of prior generations. We work with local parishes to train altar servers, choir members and youth advisers. We produce printed, digital, and video resources to deepen your understanding of the Armenian Church. We share the Armenian story on a national stage.

share the good news of Jesus Christ

The Eastern Diocese works to spread the good news of Jesus Christ. We train parish Sunday School teachers, providing them with resources to bring the Bible to life for our younger faithful. Parents also benefit from the Diocese's Christian education materials, our publications, website, and online videos. Through regional and parish seminars, the Diocese also focuses its talented Christian education staff on topics of importance to every local community.

make church relevant to young lives

Inspiring our youth is one of the most significant things we do as Armenian Christians. The Diocese makes the Armenian Church relevant to young lives—by supporting local-parish partners, training local youth ministry workers, and nurturing parish youth groups where young people enjoy a Christian fellowship with their peers. From summer camps to winter retreats, the Diocesan staff engages our children, challenges them, makes the personal connections that will lead the Armenian Church in the 21st century.

deepen faith and enrich prayer

The Diocese offers online and in-person lectures on diverse topics throughout the year, organizes pilgrimages to holy places like Jerusalem and Holy Etchmiadzin, hosts in-person Lenten retreats, and develops books, newsletters and other media to support faith formation. We also offer a narrated livestream of the Divine Liturgy from St. Vartan Cathedral on major feast days and support outreach programs across our parishes.

make our voices heard

The Eastern Diocese continues to advance the stature of the Armenian community: representing our culture and faith in international ecumenical settings, and standing at the forefront of calling for recognition of genocide—whether our own tragedy of a century ago, or the ongoing atrocities in places like the Middle East. We advocate for the people of Armenia and Artsakh, calling on church and political leaders to take action in our homeland.

understand where we come from Understanding where we come from, and sharing that knowledge with those around us, is more crucial than ever before. The Diocese's Krikor and Clara Zohrab Information Center serves as a world-class reference point for academics, journalists, historians, and people searching for information on our past, and guidance for our future.

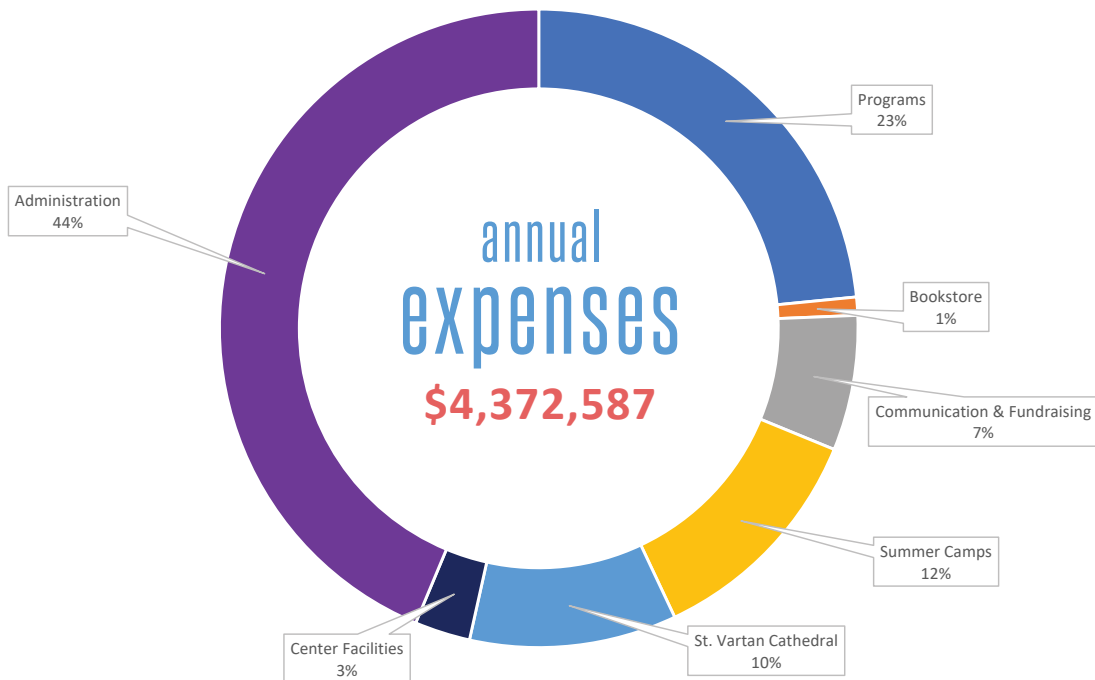

YOU make it possible

Our programs in Christian education, Armenian cultural studies, youth outreach, mission parish development, and communication have all benefited from your gracious support and moral encouragement. In local parishes across our Diocese, countless Sunday School students, ACYOA members, Armenian School participants, and parishioners from every walk of life benefit from Diocesan efforts that allow our church to pursue its mission with confidence and strength.

Our collective story as Armenian Christians is a gift we transmit to future generations. But each of us has a personal story, too.

In the past two years, the Eastern Diocese has showcased the beauty of our beloved St. Vartan Cathedral in our calendars and annual reports. Ever since it opened its doors in 1968, St. Vartan has stood as a majestic symbol of the Armenian heritage in America. But it's also a sign of our accomplishment as a community—and our solidarity with across the world: past, present... and future.

After 55 years of constant service to us all, the cathedral is in need of serious repair. With the blessing of our Primate, and in consultation with a world-class architectural firm, the Diocese has embarked on a major renovation project to return St. Vartan Cathedral to her former glory.

The work is slated to begin this summer—and it's got me reflecting on the ways St. Vartan has been an enduring presence in my life: a source of comfort, and pride.

I was just five years old when our cathedral was consecrated; but I vividly recall visiting it with my parents Ed and Zvart. We drove up from Washington on a weekend following the historic consecration service, to witness for ourselves this magnificent triumph for the Armenian people. That year, 1968 was a tumultuous time for the country—making the grand achievement of an Armenian Cathedral in New York a shining sign of optimism to stand against the surrounding uncertainty.

And over the 55 years that followed, St. Vartan Cathedral has never failed to be our beacon of hope: calling all of us together, from near and far, to worship God in her beautiful sanctuary.

No doubt you have your own personal story about St. Vartan Cathedral. We welcome your sharing of memories and support, as we undertake this campaign to restore a place we all cherish. Please know how profoundly grateful we are for your steadfast support of our Diocese, which has made so many things possible over the years. Your spirit of generosity and dedication inspires everyone who serves our Diocese, and sustains us in our ongoing ministry.

Thank you for all that
YOU GIVE FROM YOUR HEART to the Armenian Church in America
